

Countryside and Outdoor Activity Services

Privacy Notice

East Ayrshire Leisure is committed to protecting your privacy. We will only use the information that we collect about you in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations and the Data Protection Act 2018. You can browse our website without disclosing any personal information, however if you choose to provide personal information via our online booking service, e-newsletter sign-up or in any other form, we will only process your personal data in accordance with the relevant legislation.

Who is responsible for your information?

All personal information is held and processed by East Ayrshire Leisure in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018. For information on the role of data Controller, data Protection Officer and contact details for East Ayrshire Leisure, please refer to the privacy statement on East Ayrshire Leisure's website:

Countryside and Outdoor Activity Services is responsible for the management of Dean Castle Country Park, Ayrshire Athletics Arena, Annanhill Golf Course, Football Pitches and Pavilions the River Ayr Way and the East Ayrshire Strategic Path Network.

The services has a wide remit which includes outdoor learning, outdoor activities and pursuits, volunteering, estate management, green infrastructure and outdoor access. The Service also organises a variety of high profile programmes and projects and supports community groups in the development of local path networks, community greenspaces and community events.

We are also responsible for the delivery of statutory functions under the Land Reform Act (2003) Scotland and the Wildlife and Natural Environment Scotland (2011) Act including the promotion of the Scottish Outdoor Access Code, the Core Path Plan and the Biodiversity Duty Reporting.

What information do we hold?

Countryside and Outdoor Activities collect information through a variety of channels, this will include information such as; your name, address, telephone number, email address, date of birth, bank account details (where required).

This information is required to enable the provision of the aforementioned services and to allow for the participation in the services and events provided by Countryside and Outdoor Activities, ensuring the safety of the individual and that of other service users.

What is the lawful basis for processing the data?

The lawful basis for processing personal data are set out in Data Protection legislation. The lawful basis for processing personal data within Countryside & Outdoor Activities are:

- (1) Contract - The processing is necessary for performance of a contract (between a customer and the organisation)
- (2) Legal Obligation - The processing is necessary for East Ayrshire Leisure to comply with the law
- (3) Public task - the processing is necessary to perform a task in the public interest or for official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law
- (4) Consent – individuals may provide personal details for a specific purpose, this information can only be used for the purposes it was freely given. Where East Ayrshire Leisure is relying on consent to process personal data then you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.

Special Category Data

Data Protection legislation defines Special Category Data as data relating to the processing of personal data regarding racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership and the processing of genetic data, biometric data, data concerning health or data concerning a person's sex life or sexual orientation.

East Ayrshire Leisure will have a requirement to process some types of Special Category Data and in particular:

- racial or ethnic origin information for monitoring purposes

The lawful basis for processing Special Category Data are:

I. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, and occurs on the basis of a law that is, inter alia, proportionate to the aim pursued and protects the rights of data subjects;

Public Space CCTV

Signage alerting the public to the use of CCTV is displayed within the facility in which it is operational.

Images of individuals may be collected on CCTV cameras. It is necessary to collect such images for the following purposes:

- To help with reduction or negation of criminal activity
- To help apprehend or prosecute offenders

The processing of CCTV information is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest. Where CCTV may capture more sensitive information about individuals the processing is necessary for the reason of substantial public interest, for the prevention and detection of unlawful acts.

Who will we share your information with?

No personal details held by Countryside and Outdoor Activity Services are passed on to third parties, unless required by law. All contact information is kept within identified secure files.

How long do we keep your information?

East Ayrshire Leisure will only keep your personal data for as long as necessary. Full details of how long we retain the contact information outlined above can be found in East Ayrshire Council's Retention Schedule.

After this time, personal data will be securely destroyed.

Providing accurate information

It is important that we hold accurate and up to date information about customers who regularly engage in aspects of our service. If any details change, or change in the future, customers should ensure that they inform Countryside and Outdoor Activity Services as soon as possible so that they can update their records.

Individuals data processing rights

Under data protection legislation, individuals have the right to request access to information about them that East Ayrshire holds. Further details can be found in East Ayrshire Leisure's privacy statement

Individuals also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed
- in certain circumstances, transfer their data to another organization (data portability)

Individuals can contact East Ayrshire Leisure regarding the processing of their data. Details of how to do this can be found on East Ayrshire Leisure's Privacy Statement.

If individuals have a concern about the way East Ayrshire Leisure is collecting or using their personal data, they should raise their concern in the first instance with East Ayrshire

Leisure's Data Protection Officer; contact details can be found on East Ayrshire Leisure's Privacy Statement