

Volunteer Role Summary

Are you passionate about nature? Help us monitor the wildlife and habitats which make Dean Castle Country Park home. We survey for butterflies, hay-meadow species, invertebrates, mammals, amphibians and much more. We carry out surveying most every second Sunday from 21 May 2023 the guidance of the Countryside Service.

What's involved in being a Citizen Science Survey Volunteer?

- Train in survey techniques and ID
- Get some exercise and fresh air
- Meet new people from all walks of life
- Get inside knowledge of working in conservation

What will be expected of you in this role?

This role will be suitable for you, if you are;

- Available twice a month on Sundays 10am-12pm
- Our first session takes place Sunday 21 May 10am-12pm and fortnightly thereafter
- Keen to learn new skills and knowledge
- Happy in the outdoors
- Reasonably fit
- Would like to gain meaningful experience in conservation

Additional Information

- We will help you get to know Dean Castle Country Park, how you can help and how you will work with the rest of the team.
- Full training and induction will be provided and a volunteering supervisor will supervise and support you.
- No references or Criminal Convictions Declarations are required for this role, volunteers must fill out a short application form.

Find out more

Contact EALvolunteering@Eastayrshireleisure.com for more information and an application pack.

Recruitment Process

- Contact EALvolunteering@Eastayrshireleisure.com
- Take part in an informal interview with this role's volunteer supervisor.
- If you and the volunteer supervisor agree that this role is suitable for you, fill out an Application Form and any other associated paperwork.
- EAL will contact your references and carry out any Disclosure checks necessary.

This is an unpaid voluntary role. This role summary isn't legally binding or a contract.

