

Volunteer Role Summary

Cairn Table Hill Race Event Volunteer

Cairn Table, Muirkirk, East Ayrshire

The Cairn Table Hill Race is the annual 7.2km run up one of Ayrshire's finest hills and a popular event in the Bogs and Burns Hill Running Series.

What's involved in being a Hill Race Volunteer?

- Assist with putting up tables and gazebos at the Race Start.
- Assist us in keeping runners safe and on the path throughout the race.
- Help us make the Cairn Table Hill Race a friendly event by cheering on runners.

This role is for you, if you:

- Are available on Wednesday 16 July 2025 from 5.30pm-8.30pm
- Are cheery and enthusiastic.
- Are relatively fit – we may ask you to steward partway up Cairn Table Hill.
- Can make your own travel arrangements to this event. Active travel is preferred as parking is very limited at the race start.

Further Information:

- Volunteers will meet Event Staff at 5.30pm on the 16 July at the Walkers' Car Park, Kames, Muirkirk.
- You will receive a full safety briefing on how to steward the event.
- The Hill Race begins and finishes on rough ground, accessed by an unpaved track. There are no seats or toilets available anywhere at the event.
- Walking boots/sturdy shoes and midge repellent are a must for this event.
